HEAD COACH - Chuck McBreen

Head coach Chuck McBreen brings 27 years of collegiate and high school experience to the Roadrunner Mens Basketball Program. He took over a 5-20 program and has led the Roadrunners to an overall record of 305-150 in seventeen years at the helm. Ramapo has qualified for the post-season eleven of the past thirteen years. They have also finished first in the NJAC four of the past eight years. The Roadrunners are an outstanding 260-99 over the past twelve seasons. They are the Winningest College program in the state of New Jersey Division I, II or III over that time. Ramapo has qualified for the NCAA Tournament five of the past ten years. Making it to the "Elite 8" and the "Sweet 16". McBreen was named NJAC Coach of the Year in 2002/2003 and 2004/2005 seasons. Under Coach McBreen, Ramapo has set school records for wins in a season (26), consecutive wins (17), and posted four straight 20 win seasons. He also has won two ECAC Championships.

A native of North Bergen, NJ, Coach McBreen spent two years as an assistant coach at Division I Western Carolina University in North Carolina. Prior to his time at WCU, Coach McBreen served as the head boys basketball coach at Union Hill High School for four years. A two-time Hudson County Coach of the Year in 1995 & 1997, Coach McBreen turned over a program that had only won five games in three seasons. After posting a 9-16 record in his first year, 1992, Coach McBreen led his team to three consecutive winning seasons with records of 17-9, 15-9, and 19-8, and took each of those teams to the state playoffs.
